

Luxury Tax Republic of Cochinchina

After World War II, Cochinchina was constituted as an independent republic within the Federation of Indochina. In 1948, the autonomous republic, whose legal status had never been formalized, was renamed as the Provisional Government of South Vietnam.

1946. Format 35 x 19 mm. Perforated. General duty stamps overprinted in black "Taxe de luxe G. P. R. C." with new value and original value struck through with two lines. "G. P. R. C." stood for "Gouvernement Provisoire de la République de Cochinchine."
