

Lang-Son General Duty Stamps

Lang-Son is the capital of Lang-Son Province in far northeastern Vietnam bordering China. Being a border town, Lang-Son has been important for trade between the two countries. It was first occupied by the French in 1885 and served as their base when the French launched an offensive against the Viet Minh in October 1947.

Unknown date of issue. Format 26 x 40½ mm. Perforated. Inscribed "Commune LANG-SON" with 4$00 value in black at upper right. Printed in red.
