

Nam Dinh General Duty Stamps

Nam Dinh is the capital of Nam Dinh Province in the Red River Delta has 72 kilometers of coastline with the sea. The Capture of Nam Dinh (27 March 1883) was one of the early engagements of the Tonkin campaign (1883–86), in the confrontation between the French and the Vietnamese.

1930. Format 18½ x 31 mm. Perforated. Inscribed "VILLE DE NAM DINH" and "TIMBRE TAXE" with value in black in frame at bottom center. Various values and colors.

